

Grad Transitions – Career Research

The purpose of this activity is to summarize information about two potential career options. You are expected to identify two viable career options and provide some specific information about that option in the table below. You can find all the information from the “BC Work Futures” website. There are other means to find information that are not identified here. Please see you planning 10 teacher or school administrator for further information on this topic.

	Career Option 1	Career Option 2
Job Title
Job Description
Education Required
Average Earnings
Work Conditions
Future Outlook		